Derivative Highlights.

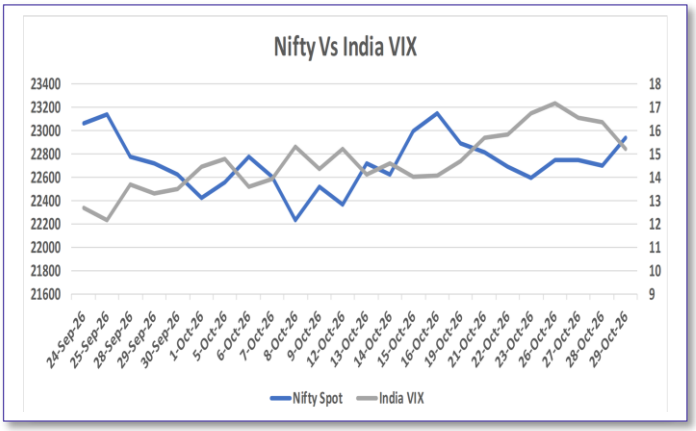

- On Thursday, Nifty Futures surged 1.18%, decisively breaking out of the previous five-session consolidation range. The index formed a strong bullish candle with a long body and minimal shadows on either side, reflecting strong buying conviction and determination among market participants. On the derivatives front, the index witnessed short covering, indicating unwinding of bearish positions and lending further support to the upmove. The PCR improved sharply to 1.44, suggesting a notable strengthening in bullish sentiment and increasing Put writing activity. Meanwhile, India VIX declined by 7.09% and ATM IV softened to 12.7, indicating a significant cooling in volatility expectations and growing market comfort with the ongoing rally. Improving derivatives positioning and a sharp drop in volatility indicate growing confidence among traders, keeping the near-term bias positive.
- Meanwhile, Bank Nifty Futures also gained 1.18% and managed to close above its 20-day EMA, a positive sign for near-term trend strength. The index witnessed short covering, suggesting bearish positions were unwound amid improving sentiment in the banking space. The PCR rose to 0.97, indicating improving market positioning and a gradual shift towards a more balanced outlook. The ATM IV stood at 14, reflecting moderate volatility expectations. The ongoing unwinding of bearish bets reflects improving participation in the banking pack, with sentiment turning increasingly constructive.
- For the weekly series, the 23000 strike has significant call open interest, followed by the 23100 strike. On the put side, 22900 has a substantial open interest, followed by the 22800 strike. Going ahead, the 23080-23100 zone is likely to act as an immediate hurdle for the index. A sustained move above 23100 could extend the ongoing pullback rally towards the 23250 level. On the downside, the 22830-22800 zone is expected to provide strong support.
- In Bank Nifty, the 55000 strike has significant call open interest, followed by the 55500 strike. On the put side, 54500 has a substantial open interest, followed by a 54000. Going forward, the 55400-55500 zone is likely to act as a crucial resistance area for the index. A sustained move above 55500 could extend the ongoing pullback rally towards the 56100 level. On the downside, the 54500-54400 zone is expected to provide immediate support. As long as the index holds above this support zone, the broader short-term trend is likely to remain constructive.
